

Red Tape Review Commission
July 19, 2011 Public Meeting

On July 19, 2011, the Red Tape Review Commission will hold a public meeting at Thomas Edison State College, Prudence Hall, from 5:00 pm until 8:00 pm. The Commission will hear testimony concerning red tape issues that affect small businesses and non-profits. Members of the public are invited to provide testimony that addresses this topic, with such comments limited to 3 minutes per speaker.

Witnesses are encouraged to register before the meeting by emailing the Commission at redtape.review@sos.state.nj.us or by telephoning (609) 984-7145 to reserve a place in the speakers' lineup. Also, witnesses should submit a written copy of their comments, preferably beforehand. Witnesses submitting comments on the day of the meeting should provide 10 copies to the Commission staff. If applicable, the Commission requests that witnesses provide the citations to the specific provision(s) of the New Jersey Administrative Code that they propose to discuss.

Thomas Edison State College is located at 101 West State Street, Trenton, NJ, 08608, just south of the Statehouse.
